The Indian rupee is the official currency of the Republic of India. The rupee is subdivided into 100 paise (singular paisa), though as of 2011, 25 paise is no longer consider as a legal tender. In 2010, a new symbol '₹', was officially made an announcement. It was derived from the combination of the Devanagari consonant "र" (ra) and the Latin capital letter "R" without its vertical bar. The parallel lines at the top with white space between them are to make an illusion to the tricolor Indian flag, and also depict an equality sign that symbolizes the nation's desire to reduce economic disparity.
